Order delivered on 21.04.2022

Coram:

DHARMINDER SINGH, HON'BLE MEMBER (JUDICIAL)

PRESENT:

For the Applicant : Mr. Malak Bhatt, Adv.

ORDER

Mr. Bala Subarmanyam has appeared in person and stated that approximately two instalments have been received and it is being stated by Mr. Malak Bhatt that the rest of the payment would be made by 31st May. In view of the same, Mr. Bala Subarmanyam has consented, accordingly, the payment should be made as promised by the Ld. Counsel for the respondent.

So far as other 9 people mentioned in the previous order sheet are concerned, they have been fully paid, as stated by the Ld. Counsel for the respondents.

Affidavit to that effect be filed within one week.

In all these matters, Mr. Sinha, Ld. Counsel on behalf of the respondent has appeared and stated that approximately 22 objections have been received, but those objections never received by this Tribunal. As the parties are appearing personally and they are not aware of the procedure, how those documents have to be filed before Tribunal. Therefore, it is appropriate, if copies of all these objections may be filed on behalf of the respondent. Registry shall accordingly, permit Mr. Malak Bhatt to place on record those objections with this Tribunal in a Pdf form.

Accordingly, the application qua amendment of scheme shall be heard on the next date of hearing.

Any one, who is suffering from the hardship and require money urgently, he/she can approach Mr. Malak Bhatt, Advocate on the given E-mail and Mobile Number.

Let the matter be fixed for 31.05.2022.

Copy of this order be placed on all the other connected matters i.e. Item No. 401, 403 to 462.
